EVENT INFORMATION

The Makahiki Maoli Festival is hosted by Kōmike Makua Pūnana Leo o Honolulu, a non-profit 501(c)(3) educational organization since 1992 to support the Pūnana Leo o Honolulu, a Hawaiian medium educational program that teaches Hawaiian language and cultural values to our Hawai'i keiki and 'ohana. The purpose of the festival is to preserve, perpetuate, educate, and share Hawaiian cultural traditions, values and practices through the emphasis of the Hawaiian language and Makahiki traditions. The Makahiki Maoli Festival also celebrates Hawaiian culture through language, music, dance, mele and oli, arts, crafts, education, games, traditions and ceremonies at the start of the Makahiki season. The event is supported by the hard work and dedication of the 'ohana and staff of Pūnana Leo o Honolulu, along with many volunteers from within the community.

Accident Waiver and Release of Liability

I am applying for entry into Kōmike Makua Pūnana Leo o Honolulu's Makahiki Maoli Festival Heihei Wa'a. This event will be held on Sunday, November 22, 2009. I fully realize this is an event that is subject to winds, waves, tides, currents and other natural marine hazards. I also realize that by entering this race I put my self at risk to these hazards. I understand that I cannot participate in this event unless I am willing to assume full responsibility for possible consequences of all these hazards, including, but not limited to, injury or death. Therefore, by signing below, I assume full responsibility for the above, for my health and for liability over my canoe. Neither the Makahiki Maoli Festival, the Kōmike Makua Pūnana Leo o Honolulu nor the 'Aha Pūnana Leo, Inc. will be held responsible for any injury, death, property damage or theft that may take place at or during the event. The Makahiki Maoli Festival committee reserves the right to refuse any entry if it has a valid concern for safety or liability.

I hereby certify that I am physically fit and able to participate in this event and have not been advised by a certified medical person otherwise.

I understand this is an event covering a large amount of ocean and no qualified medical care will be available.

I hereby certify that I have read and agree to all of the above and I also agree to comply with all rules and regulations.
